To the Students

Your school board, elected by your parents and neighbors from ten different director districts, oversee the operation of Mount Vernon High School. The duties of this group are many, such as budgeting available funds, hiring administrative and teaching personnel, and setting up policy to be followed. All of this is done with but one thought in mind—to give the students the best in educational opportunities. We feel fortunate in having Mr. Wendell T. Phipps as superintendent and Miss Elin Anderson as secretary. Mr. Phipps works closely with the board and carries out their policies.

Yes, serving as a board member is rewarding in many ways, especially when one hears of the accomplishments of students, and of the many graduates that have gone on to make a mark for themselves throughout the land. Such things certainly give us a feeling of satisfaction.

Earl Hanson, Board Chairman

The Seniors take their final step

The Class of 1957 began their high school career by electing Edwin McBee, President; Barbara Logsdon, Vice-President; Kay Randles, Secretary; and Judy Mercer, Treasurer of their Freshman Class. They were introduced to high school social life when the Sophomores entertained them at the traditional Frosh-Sophomore dance. The climax of their first year activities was the April Fools' Day Assembly which was presented to the entire student body and won for the class the Best Assembly Award.

As Sophomores, with the class treasury a little low, a dance was sponsored at the "Y", and the group had charge of concessions at several games. They also became active in all other school affairs. Thirty students earned places in the Honor Society. Many of the boys earned Junior Varsity letters, and several girls came into possession of Green M sweaters. In February the class presented the Sophomore assembly. Leading the class through this active year were President Dave Schink, Vice-President Barbara Logsdon, Secretary O. A. Gilbert, and Treasurer Carolyn Deming.

As Juniors and upperclassmen, the class elected Bob Gross as their President; Vice-President was Jim Dixon; Secretary, Jacque Mays; and Treasurer, Ted Johnson. Juniors turned out enthusiastically for band, dramatics, choir, and other school activities and many of them won outstanding positions. Among these were Merle Sande, A.S.B. Assistant Treasurer; Lawrence Hanson, Gentleman Athlete in Basketball; Kay Randles and Joni Sund, school yell leaders; Bob Gross, state wrestling championship; Charlene Cook and Denise Stewart, Homecoming Princesses; and Joanne Williamson, Miss Pep. Denise Stewart and Dannie Davis were elected to represent their class as queen and king of the Junior Prom. Marilyn Sanford and her committee were in charge of decorations and produced an intriguing South Sea background for this major social event.

As Seniors, Tom Friesen was elected President; Dannie Davis, Vice-President; Nancy Partington, Secretary; and Jacque Vogt, Treasurer. Money-making activities again took a large share of class energy. Booster buttons and booster hats were sold, concessions at the games were handled, and dances sponsored to finance class activities.

Members of the class dominated many school activities. Bob Gross was A.S.S. President; Jim Dixon Vice-President; Susan Everett, Secretary; and Merle Sande, Treasurer. Sharon Johnson was one of the yell leaders. Paula Schacht, Denise Stewart, and Lorraine Van Waveren were song leaders. Kay Randles was Homecoming Queen. Two of her princesses were seniors—Charlene Cook and Elaine Clizbe.

The Senior Ball, South Sea Magic, was presented at the Holiday Ballroom in December in conjunction with Sedro Woolley and Burlington. King and queen of the event from Mount Vernon were Bill Kelley and Elaine Clizbe. Another big senior activity in December was the Christmas assembly which was built around a minstrel show and was well received.

Advising the seniors for this all-important year were Chairman Dene Lawson, Joe Day, Wilbur Wigner, Roger Ringstad, Minnie Gerriets, Joe Murphy, and Bertha Compton.

JUNIOR CLASS OFFICERS: Sharon Karr, treasurer; Dick Chichester, secretary, Lynn Yearsley, vice-president; Dick Williamson, president.

Under the guidance of their efficient class officers, the class of '58 has completed another successful school year.

The annual Junior Class Thanksgiving assembly was given November 20 and was in the tradition of the class which has twice won the best class assembly award. The Junior Prom was held in the spring in conjunction with the Burlington and Sedro Wooley high schools.

The class took an active part in sponsoring dances, selling concessions, and in sports. Many of the capable players on all the school teams were Juniors.

Now the members of the class are looking forward confidently to their final year as Seniors.

On Their Way Up

Outstanding Sophomores received recognition in the field of sports and are expected to contribute a great deal in the next two years.

Working together, the class swelled their treasury by selling concessions at games. Their class assembly was held in February. Now they are ready to begin next year as upperclassmen of Mount Vernon High School.
